Body of Girl Is Taken From Buckeye Lake

Found Floating In About Four Feet of Water in Back Channel Between the Park and Fickle's Point

WAS STILL WARM WHEN TAKEN FROM THE WATER

Identified as Miss Caryl Gillard of Columbus—Mysterious Circumstances Surrounding Case Leads Coroner W. E. Wiyiarch to Make Thorough Investigation—Two Theories Advanced as to Cause Which Led to Drowning.

Another unfortunate drowning occurred at Buckeye Lake Wednesday afternoon when Miss Caryl Gillard, 29, of Columbus, O., was found floating in the back channel of the lake directly east of the woodland lying between the park and Fickle's point.

An Advocate reporter was fishing in the channel within a quarter of a mile from where the body was found and was on the scene within twenty minutes and was told the following story by the gentleman who took the unfortunate girl from the water.

"My name is J. H. King and I reside at Columbus. About 4:30 o'clock I rowed past the big tree on my way toward the point and saw a young lady sitting under the tree with her hat slightly pulled forward shading her face. I returned in less than an hour and just as I rowed beyond the tree saw what I thought was an old white rag floating in the water. As I drew nearer I was horrified to see that it was the body of a girl, her dress keeping the body within a few inches of the top of the water. I saw several men further down the channel and called to them and they hurried to my assistance. They were William H. and Samuel W. Phillips of Shawnee, O. One of the men took the girl by the arm and we pulled her ashore and laid the body under the tree. It was still warm and we did our best to resuscitate the drowned girl but could not succeed. A man named 'Shorty' Adams came up from one of the restaurants and helped us but we could not revive her. We then asked one of the bystanders to notify the coroner and he did so."

When the body was taken from the lake there were no shoes on her feet. Her hat, a large bowl-shaped black straw trimmed with large red flowers, a pair of tan oxfords, partly covered with mud and a purse with the initials "F. G. D." were found under the tree where the girl had been sitting. In the purse were 37 cents and a return trip ticket to Columbus with the date, "August 13" stamped on the back.

Within a comparatively short time a hundred people had viewed the

1200 KILLED IN FIGHT AT CANTON CITY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Canton, China, Aug. 14.—Twelve hundred were killed in the fighting in Canton City yesterday. Pillage is in progress everywhere. Half of the government troops have joined the rebels and together they have looted the principal goldsmith and silversmiths stores. Local officials and army officers are powerless owing to dissensions among themselves.

An attack on the foreign concessions at Shamen is believed by foreign residents to be in contemplation and the detachment of Indian native troops stationed there as a guard was reinforced today from Hong Kong. The foreign quarters serve as a buffer between the rival forces.

A huge fire broke out today destroying thirty barracks and as a result of the accompanying rioting the exodus of the civilian population continued without abatement.

Traffic on the Hankow railway has been suspended. From Puyuen to the north of Canton, a report was received today of a rising of brigands and from other parts of the province of Kwang-tung news has reached here that a state of chaos exists.

Gen. Lung Chi-kuang, with his northern troops has retired from the vicinity of the city.

BLOCK ATTEMPT FOR VOTE ON THE TARIFF MEASURE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 14.—An attempt by Senator Simmons, leader of the Democratic tariff forces, to arrange for a vote on the tariff bill in the Senate August 25, was blocked by Senator Gallinger, Republican leader.

Democrats refused to say whether they would insist upon taking up the currency bill after the tariff was completed and Republicans refused to say whether they would filibuster against the tariff until assured that the currency bill would not be passed.

Senators Simmons and James tried to get Senator Gallinger to tell the Republicans plans but he refused.

FATHER OF INJURED BOY BRINGS SUIT

Claims $26,367.25 For Injuries Son Sustained in Collision With Wire While Riding Motorcycle.

Albert Clapham, father of the boy who was injured in the motorcycle accident east of Granville, July 13th has commenced suit against the county commissioners and the contractors who had supervision of the construction of the pike at that point; the amount asked as reparation for the damage totals $26,367.25.

In the first petition, Leon Clapham, infant, by Albert Clapham, his next friend, vs. Joseph Brownfield, George Tavenner and S. J. Tatham, board of county commissioners of Licking county and W. S. Gregg and H. D. Pletcher, partners doing business as Gregg & Pletcher, the plaintiff states through his attorneys, Smythe & Smythe that at the time of the accident the road was open to public travel at the consent of the contractors and that for some time prior to the accident the road had been used by the public. It is also stated that a wire was drawn across the road three feet from the ground and no signal attached; that the wire could not be seen at any distance and that as a result of collision with the wire, the boy was thrown from his motorcycle, his jaw and nose broken and his skull fractured. It is not expected that he will ever be able to do mental or manual labor. The boy is eighteen years of age. Judgment is asked to the amount of $25,000.

In the second petition, Albert Clapham brings suit against the same parties for damages to the amount of $1,367.25. It is claimed that the boy was being employed by his father and the value of his services which are now rendered useless is estimated at $1,000. In addition to this damages, in the care of the injuries, the boy received are asked, the amount being $367.25.

Two Democratic Senators Fight the Currency Bill

Washington, Aug. 14.—Senators Gilbert M. Hitchcock of Nebraska and James A. O'Gorman of New York, both strong Democrats, and the latter an especially strong adherent of the Wilson administration, have begun a fight on the Owen-Glass currency bill, which President Wilson has said time and again he wishes passed at the extra session.

Senator Owen reported to the president that forty-two out of fifty-one Democrats are on record in his poll as favoring the passage of the bill; two, Senators Bankhead of Alabama and Clarke of Arkansas, are undecided about proceeding with the currency question at this time; five others have stated they hoped the question could go over to the next session on physical grounds, and only Senators Hitchcock and O'Gorman are said to have stated their unqualified opposition to legislation at the session. Nine Republicans are said to favor legislation at once.

STILL SEARCHING FOR ASSAILANT OF LITTLE GIRL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Lexington, Mo., Aug. 14.—Nearly 48 hours of diligent search having brought forth no trace of the negro, George Winkfield, sought in connection with the murder last Tuesday of 13-year-old Estelle Potter, searchers lost much of their enthusiasm today.

Several hundred men with hounds, continued the search, but it was the belief of many that the young negro either had escaped by freight train to Kansas City or St. Louis, or in despair thrown himself into the Missouri river and drowned.

Sheriff Waddell left late today for Hardin, Mo., where a train crew today arrested a negro believed to be Winkfield. As soon as it was learned that the sheriff had a new clue, the armed posse that had been searching for Winkfield since the crime, also left for Hardin. If the negro is identified as Winkfield, a lynching is feared.

MAY APPEAL TO GOVERNOR FOR TROOPS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Minot, N. D., Aug. 14.—The labor war in Minot has gained such proportions today that officials were discussing the advisability of appealing to the governor for state troops. One thousand more Industrial Workers of the World are reported to be on their way to this city to aid in the battle for free speech.

The determination of citizens to prevent street speaking was evinced last night when a mob attacked the Industrial Workers of the World who were holding a meeting. The Industrial Workers of the World retaliated and scenes of disorder followed.

Police and deputies forced their way through the mob, striking right and left. Many persons were severely clubbed. The disturbance continued unabated until twenty-seven of the Industrial Workers of the World had been arrested.

Fearing a jail delivery would be attempted officers armed with rifles, patrolled the tops of the jail and adjacent buildings throughout the night. The prisoners now numbering 139, howled most of the night and the din could be heard for blocks. At one time the fire department was called out and turned the hose on them in an effort to quell the disturbance.

According to leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World the battle will be resumed upon the arrival of reinforcements. They declare they will exert every resource to gain their rights to free speech. Authorities are equally vehement in their declarations that order shall be preserved even at the cost of life.

Farmers are becoming interested in the war to the extent of refusing to hire men who are affiliated with the organization.

Sulzer and Glynn Both On the Job

State Government Thrown Out of Gear and Various Heads of Departments Take Sides In the Muddle

NO RELIEF PROMISED IN THE COMPLEX SITUATION

Great Seal of State of New York in Governor Sulzer's Possession, Who Also Occupies the Executive Chamber—Impeachment Hearing Will Occur Thursday, September 18—Mrs. Sulzer Reported Critically Ill.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 14.—Mrs. Sulzer's illness is so serious as to be regarded as critical, according to announcement made today by Governor Sulzer's Secretary.

Two additional specialists were summoned from New York by telegraph this morning to attend her.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Albany, N. Y., Aug. 14.—The complex machinery of the state government over which both William Sulzer and Martin H. Glynn claimed sole authority bade fair today to be thrown out of gear by their rival attempts to direct it.

Heads of many departments were divided into two groups. One of these groups, under the leadership of Sulzer, adhered to his contention that his impeachment yesterday was unconstitutional and prepared to continue their obedience to his instructions as though there had been no impeachment. The other holding that he ceased to be governor when the senate received the articles of impeachment charged against him, was marshaled under the standard of Glynn, ready to carry out his orders and ignore any which the impeached governor might see fit to issue. Never in the history of the state has its army of employees been more demoralized. Nor does the panic affect only the internal affairs of New York. It extends to the state's relation with other commonwealths and unless the issue is speedily settled there is every indication that other states will shortly find themselves in the perplexing situation of deciding for themselves who is governor of New York.

An instance of this situation was revealed in the announced intention of both Glynn and Sulzer to sign requisition papers for prisoners held in the name of New York beyond its borders. Whatever today might bring forth, no permanent relief in the situation was indicated this forenoon. Leaders of the two factions expected no settlement of the problem till after the meeting of the legislature next Tuesday at noon. Then, they believe, the issue will be squarely joined and ready for submission to the courts, by the legislature's formal recognition of Lieutenant Governor Glynn as acting governor.

Reports today were that such recognition would be granted by the senate by confirming the appointment by Governor Glynn of the state labor commissioner.

Abram Elkus, of New York City, was said to be the man favored by Mr. Glynn for the office.

The great seal of the state of New York was still in the possession this forenoon of Governor Sulzer, notwithstanding the claim of his opponents that it legally passed out of his keeping and into the custody of the lieutenant governor when the senate received the articles of impeachment yesterday.

Sulzer still occupied the executive chamber and will continue to occupy it, or attempt to do so until the impeachment trial is under way. He still occupied the executive mansion. Although Governor Sulzer and his counsel—within a group wide of reputation as managers of ability—planned to ignore the impeachment formally for the time being on the ground that it was unconstitutional, the governor will make a spirited defense before the court of impeachment which meets Thursday, Sept. 18. At this meeting it is expected preparations will be made to begin the trial on the following Monday, Sept. 22. The governor's wife, star witness for the defense, lay seriously ill in a state of collapse at the executive mansion this forenoon.

To those at her bedside yesterday she declared hysterically she alone was to blame for bringing to her husband the mountain of trouble he faces. A specialist on nervous diseases, summoned by wire from New York City last night, is in constant attendance upon her.

Her illness has affected the governor deeply. When he learned the serious nature of her ailment last night, he declared, in an outburst of impulsiveness, that he would never permit her to take the witness stand at his trial. Friends expect to dissuade him from this, however, should her condition improve sufficiently as they believe that the governor's case will be materially strengthened when she tells her story to the court.

In the opinion of some of the governor's friends the court of impeachment will never sit in judgment on his case and Mrs. Sulzer will be saved the ordeal of examination at the hands of counsel for political interests bitter toward her husband.

"Mrs. Sulzer far from acting with intent to do wrong, was entirely unconscious of the gravest of her offense when she bought stocks with a part of her husband's campaign contributions," asserted a close friend of the Sulzer family today. "On the contrary, she thought she was doing a sensible thing. Her husband was involved in debt when he began his campaign for the governorship. He had saved nothing during the years he was a representative at Washington. He is not a business man and his wife thought she was entirely within her rights in providing for the future in putting away something for a rainy day even without his knowledge."

The governor's friends who believe that the court of impeachment will never convene to try his case base their opinion on the tentative plan of his counsel to have the

Judge Issues Injunction Against the Strikers of a Steubenville, O., Plant

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Aug. 11.—Laying down the general principle that while a man may refuse to work he may not deny that right to others, United States Judge Sater in a decision authorizing an injunction restraining Steubenville strikers from further acts of violence in their picketing of the Phillips Sheet and Tin Plate company's plant.

In a long review of the case, which has been in progress here since Monday, Judge Sater considered the alleged actions of strikers and their union sympathizers in assaulting men employed in the plant. In hurling threats and jeers at them as they passed along the streets enroute to work, and their attempt to prevent stores to supply workers with provisions.

"A man has a right to operate an open shop. He cannot force persons to work for him. The workmen have the right to organize into unions, but they cannot force employers to hire only union men," Judge Sater declared. "Employers may conduct a lockout, or may threaten to do so. Union men may strike, or may threaten to do so, but neither side can resort to violence."

He laid down the principle that threats made by striking workers on picket duty around the plant are just as intimidating, in many cases, as open violence.

The Steubenville strike was started early in July, when the plant was changed from a union to an open shop. This came after it was purchased from the Polk Tin Plate company, which operated it under a union agreement. The Phillips company operates two similar non-union plants in West Virginia and on purchasing the Ohio mill immediately announced that the union would not be recognized.

Cool Nerve Displayed by Theatre Attaches During Fire Prevents a Panic

Cool headedness displayed by Treasurer Harry Reese and Musician George Friel of the Auditorium theatre staff Wednesday night, probably saved the serious consequences of a panic in the play house when a reel of motion picture film was ignited by a spark from the machine and caused a fire which destroyed five reels and damaged the machines. The loss is estimated at $400.

When the film flashed into a blaze Mr. Reese hurried to the front of the house, admonished the people to remain seated as there was no danger, and directed Pianist Friel to continue the lively march he was playing. This prompt action on the part of the attaches of the theatre restored the large crowd to its senses, temporarily destroyed by the first moment of fright. As a result, most of them left the theatre quickly but orderly, and as far as is known, but one person suffered injuries. A woman, in her hurry to get outside, turned her ankle and suffered considerable pain from the injury. She was taken in charge by friends who were with her and removed to her home. Her name was not learned.

Manager Johnson was featuring a three-reel special, "The Grain Speculators," with two other reels for the evening's entertainment. Ross Rugg, assistant operator, had one of the reels on the screen when the flash occurred. In his efforts to extinguish the flames his hands and arms were painfully burned.

The all-steel fireproof booth reduced the peril to a minimum and there was no danger at any time of the flames communicating to other parts of the theatre.

Though the machines were considerably damaged, the repairs will be

POP GEERS IS DRIVER OF M. M. STAKE WINNER

Kentucky Gelding Shows Remarkable Speed Under Master Hand Of Veteran Driver.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 14.—The 2:08 trot was the headliner of today's grand circuit program. Cheney appeared to be the most promising contender in a field which included Peter Johnson, winner of a futurity here two years ago, Bivolo, Mari-gold, Oakdale and Robert Milroy.

Only three starters were on the list for the free-for-all pace but their high class pedigrees a stirring race. Vernon McKinley, winner of the 1911 Chamber of Commerce was opposed by Braden Direct and Don Densmore.

The other events were the 2:12 pace and the 2:18 trot both of which the largest field of the week were expected to trot.

The free-for-all pace had a value of $1,000, the others $1,000 each.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 14.—Ed Geers won the sixth M. M. yesterday, when, after five hard-fought heats, he landed Reusens the victor in the classic stake. Tenara, the Kentucky mare, and winner this year of three big stakes, could not withstand the terrific rushes of Geers' gelding and having taken first place in two heats was unable there after to do better than second.

Cabel won the 2:13 pace and Flower Direct the 2:05 pace, both in straight heats, while Dr. Burns, Jr. captured the 2:08 pace after dropping the first heat.

No M. M. in recent years furnished more thrilling sport than yesterday's renewal. Every mile was hotly contested from wire to wire. Tenara, in the first heat, led all the way, but had to be driven out to win from Santos Maid by a half length. Judson Girl and Reusens finished noses apart four lengths behind. Tenara repeated in the second heat, but won with less effort at the end when both Judson Girl and Santos Maid, who had been contenders all the way, lost their stride within 100 yards of the finish. Reusens broke at the far turn and was a poor sixth at the end of the mile.

Excitement came in the next heat. Tenara and Judson Girl were half a dozen lengths ahead of the field from the start until the stretch was entered. About half way down the straightaway, Reusens shot out of the bunch in a marvelous display of speed, came on even terms with the leaders, showed in front of the tiring Tenara and beat her to the wire by the narrowest of margins. Judson Girl was third and Star Winter next, the four horses being so closely bunched it was difficult to pick their positions from the stands.

Reusens went out in front in the next heat, but fell back to fourth place before the half-mile post was reached. In that position he remained until half way down the stretch, when Geers again sent him through to another close decision. Geers and Andrews had no competition in the final heat. They sent their charges out ahead, the mare showing a lead in the lead. Nearing the finish, Reusens once more responded to the master driver's call and finished ahead. The victor is owned by S. E. DeRidder of Louisville, Ky.

Fanny Stanton looked like a winner in the first heat of the 2:10 pace, but on the back stretch she took fright at a passing train and ran away. The mare finished far behind the flag but the judges placed her fourth. Cabel won the heat, after a hard drive from Strathmore. The next two were easier for Cox, with Murphy's horse always close up.

Flower Direct took the 2:05 pace in straight heats, but always seemed in danger. Legs was unable to properly handle Walter Cochran and after allowing the handsome stallion to run the last half-mile in a decision, was sent down by the judges and Geers was put in his place.

In the first heat of the 2:08 pace Harry, the Ghost, starting 25 yards behind the others, trailed the field all the way to the stretch, then came around the outside like a grey streak and beat Dr. Burns, Jr. by half a length. He could not repeat, however, and the Burns horse took the next two rather easily.

PANIC CONDITIONS RESULT ON ACCOUNT OF KANSAS DROUGHT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 14.—Reports of exhausted water supply, illness from bad water and heat, crops burned beyond redemption and panic conditions among live stock raisers reached here on the eleventh consecutive day of extreme heat in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma. Rain-fall in the last 24 hours had been negligible and prospects for more in the next 24 are of the poorest.

Wells from which the water supply of Lawrence, Kansas, a city of 15,000 inhabitants was obtained, were dry today and water from the Kansas river now very low was turned into the mains. The cisterns of Lawrence are dry.

In the corn growing districts about Wichita many fields have been so scorched by the sun that the dried blades have blown from the cornstalks and the corn scarcely can produce even fodder.

The last heavy rain in the Wichita section was April 7. The authorities of Sedgewick county are taking advantage of dry rivers and creeks to repair bridges.

In the district about Hutchinson, Kas., although there has been no good rains for weeks and the heat has been intense crops and livestock have suffered little, because of the sand strata underflow of water. Many orchards, market gardens and alfalfa fields in the district are being irrigated from this underflow.

St. Joseph, Mo., reported today twenty deaths from heat prostrations in the last 24 hours. In the corn raising district about St. Joseph, farmers have abandoned hope of saving the grain and are cutting the stalks for fodder.

SPARKS FROM ENGINE SET FIRE TO BARN

Sparks from an engine of a threshing machine outfit being operated on the farm of Dr. E. Cook, veterinarian, near Brownsville, set fire to one of the barns on the place. The blaze which followed completely destroyed the barn, a buggy shed and the doctor's hen coop.

The fact that the fire started while the threshers were still at work made its discovery prompt and the men were able to rescue all the live stock, and remove most of the implements stored in the building. The barn was a total loss and about six tons of hay stored in the mow was consumed, as well as several implements which the men did not have time to remove.

There was great danger of the blaze communicating with the farm home. Large burning embers were carried to the slate roof of the house but careful watching on the part of those who were present, prevented the dwelling catching fire.

The loss will amount to several hundred dollars with a small amount of insurance.

WIFE IN HOSPITAL IS UNAWARE OF HER HUSBAND'S DEMISE

Elston Grant McPherson Succumbs to Typhoid Fever—Wife Ill With Same Malady.

The fiftieth anniversary of the birth of Elston Grant McPherson, well known Newark tailor, will be marked by his funeral which will be held at his home, 41 North avenue, Rev. Calvin Hazlett of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Mr. McPherson died Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock at the city hospital where he has been a patient for three weeks, suffering from typhoid fever. He was removed there with his wife who is also ill of the same malady. Mrs. McPherson has not been told of her husband's death and it is probable that funeral and burial will take place without her knowledge.

Mr. McPherson was born near Jacksontown, Aug. 15, 1863, and his boyhood days were spent in that locality. In early manhood he came to Newark where he became a tailor's apprentice and followed this occupation up to the time he was seized with his last illness.

He has been a well known and popular resident of Newark for many years. Besides his wife, he is survived by his mother and one brother, John, who resides in Columbus.

Following his death, the body was removed to the home by Bazler & Bradley, funeral directors. Rev. Mr. Hazlett, who will conduct the funeral services, was called to Newark from Winona Lake, where he is spending his vacation with his family. The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family home. Interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

BUCKEYE BAND IN DELIGHTFUL FREE CONCERT

The Buckeye Band gave another enjoyable concert in the court house park Wednesday night and a crowd estimated at several thousand heard the music. That is they heard a little of it but the fact that the musicians were seated on the ground level made it difficult for those except in closest proximity to the band to hear satisfactorily.

This band has been practicing diligently for several months and has acquired a splendid repertoire which is rendered in a pleasing manner. Their effort is worthy of a more substantial recognition than it has been receiving.

A bandstand built in such a manner that it could be removed from the court house lawn, should be provided. It need not be costly and it is not necessary that it be artistic in design. The members of the band have thus far provided these concerts without cost. Their effort for a few weeks since to create a fund from which to pay the musicians should have met with greater success and it is not too late now to establish such a fund. A removable band stand would do away with the objection of some business men who could not agree with the proposed location of the stand, as it could be changed from one side of the square to the other, alternating on different evenings.

Other cities have bands of which they are proud and there is no good reason why Newark should not enjoy such an organization. The ability is at hand in the present organization and the only absent factor is sufficient interest and substantial support.

The boys composing this band are to be congratulated for the progress made during the past few months and the presence of several thousand persons last night indicates that their efforts are being appreciated.

As an indication of the attitude of Newark people toward these band concerts, the following communication received from an Advocate reader, is submitted:

"The second band concert given Wednesday evening was better than the first. The south side of the square was more quiet and the freedom from trolley interruption was vastly appreciated. Again the crowd numbered over two thousand, and they sat in groups or lingered contentedly for more than an hour. Hundreds of children, old ladies, and young fathers and sons, all classes, alike lovers of tone and tune, marked the quality and intention of the music. The music was spirited, the time excellent, and the ensemble playing much improved. The overture from Post and Peasant was well rendered. It is a difficult number for so many parts. Mr. Reynolds directed throughout the evening with finished skill. His singing was happily a great hit and all the comments were for more."

"There is no band and as yet, and an hour and a half makes standing wearisome. Can there not be camp chairs to hire? Many people remarked that Mr. Reynolds should have stood upon the court house steps to sing. Newark has an excellent band. Let's all boost, but new music, lend our presence, approval, or give them what they need for encouragement. A merrie heart goes all the day and good music soothes both grief and savagery."

RARE CAPTURE OF THALESSA LUNATOR BY FRANK GARRY

A very peculiar insect is on exhibition at Garry's cafe of Fourth street. Mr. Garry discovered it clinging to the window Monday evening and placed it in a glass case where it is still in good condition and will probably live for several days. This bug looks like a large wasp except for three enormous tails. It is a distinctly beneficial insect to agriculture because it causes the death of destructive caterpillars.

The Ichneumon fly, which is the popular name of the insect uses these three long appendages to lay eggs in the caterpillar or larvae of some moths. Many times, collectors find caterpillars from which they expect to get moths or some rare species for their collections, and are disappointed to find that the ichneumon fly had seen the caterpillar first and deposited its eggs. When the eggs hatch into small larvae they feed upon the caterpillar. This parasitic tendency of the fly saves shade trees from the destruction wrought by many insects which devour the leaves.

This species, the Thalessa lunator, is rather a rare insect. There are thousands of closely related species which are known to the Department of Agriculture to be very beneficial to the farmer. The insect is still on exhibition at Garry's cafe and is worth seeing for it is rather a rare capture in this county.

Uncle Walt's Philosophy

soon grows fat and lazy and shiftless as a Turk. Talk brings no diminution of sorrow in the soul; no stunts in eloquence will fill your bin with coal; no large, high sounding phrases will scare the wolf, whose gaze is a terror like blazes the wintry tempests roll.

The Panacea.

If talk would banish trouble, we'd all be gay, by jinx! And grief would be a bubble, an evanescent thing; there'd be no tears or waiting, or sorrow, unavailing; this life would be plain sailing, all men would dance and sing. If talk would solve all puzzles beneath the starry flax, there'd be no use for muzzles, no man would wear a gag; there'd be no need of toiling to keep the pot a-boiling; we'd say farewell to moiling, and loaf and chew the rag. If talk would bring us garden, or lighten up the load; if talk would ease the burden or mend the rocky road, the toiler and the tiller, the merchant and the sailor, would cease to hump for silver; there'd be no spur or goad. But talk, though it were coming from Cicero or Burke, won't keep the wheels a-humming, won't take the place of work; the working man's a daisy; the talker's sphere is hazy; he soon grows fat and lazy and shiftless as a Turk. Talk brings no diminution of sorrow in the soul; no stunts in eloquence will fill your bin with coal; no large, high sounding phrases will scare the wolf, whose gaze is a terror like blazes the wintry tempests roll.

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 14.—[Special.]—Criticism of the administration for inaction or lack of policy in regard to Mexico naturally comes from Republican sources. It must also be acknowledged that most of the Republican senators who have taken the matter up are equally critical of the best Republican administration for inactivity or for dealing too gently with those who have been making trouble for Americans in Mexico.

There are many men in both houses of congress, and they do not belong to one party by any means, who believe that intervention with force is necessary and that we are going to have war with Mexico. Most of them deplore it and many fear it will be years before we can withdraw from that distracted country. Naturally, President Wilson is more reluctant than any other person, for his is the great responsibility.

Similar to 1898.
 The situation is similar to that in 1898. Then the Republican president, Mr. McKinley, was criticised by the Democrats for inactivity in behalf of Cuba. The Democrats introduced many resolutions for intervention and sought to have them considered. A body of so called "insurgents" among the Republicans finally grew so large that action was forced upon the Republicans to pass the resolution which was virtually the beginning of the war with Spain.

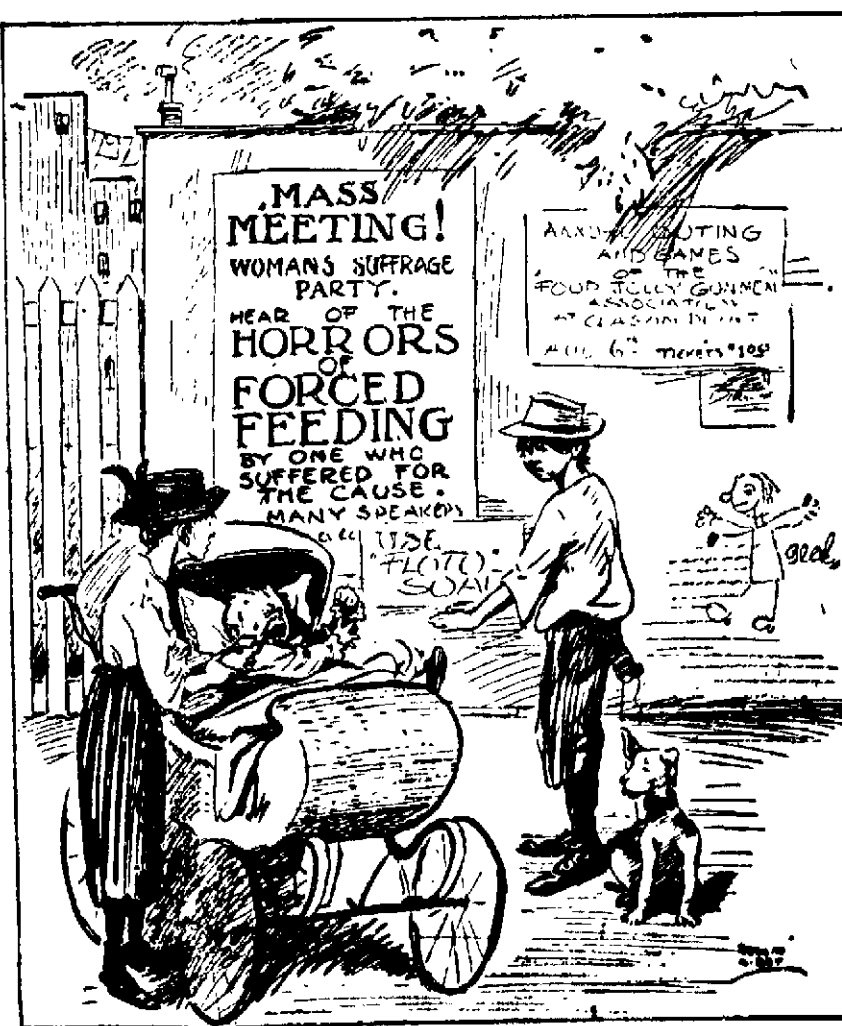

I remember that among the men I met at that time was James Hamilton Lewis, then an ex-member of the house and a resident of Washington state. "My boy," remarked the future Illinois senator, "we Democrats have taken the Republicans by the scruff of the neck and pitched them into this war. The political result will be that the Republicans will remain in power for the next ten years."

Which showed that Lewis was "some prophet."

Military Committee Innovation.
 For the first time since the civil war the military committee of the senate will have for its chairman a man who did not participate in that war. The Democrats have no civil war veteran now a member of the committee. The man next in line is Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, who was much too young to participate in the war. The committee has had but five chairmen since John A. Logan died. They were Hawley of Connecticut, Bate of Tennessee, Warren of Wyoming, Du Pont of Delaware and Johnston of Alabama. The Republicans have four civil war soldiers members of the committee.

A Sensitive Department.
 Secretary McAdoo has found that the treasury is a sensitive department—

"DON'T MAKE HER TAKE IT, KATIE; SHE AIN'T NO MRS. PANKHOIST."

Give the Bad Boy a Chance,
He Has Some Good In Him

By Judge W. N. GATENS of the Portland (Ore.) Juvenile Court

GIVE a helping hand to the small boy who is also a bad boy. GIVE HIM A CHANCE. A boy isn't necessarily all bad because he tells a fib or loots an orchard.
 PUT THEM ON THEIR HONOR, these youthful offenders, and see how they come back. We've tried it in Portland, and ninety-eight per cent of the accused have never come before the juvenile court a second time.

A BOY IS NOT NECESSARILY MORALLY OR MENTALLY DEFICIENT BECAUSE HE TELLS A LIE. FIRST REMEMBER THAT THE CHILD MUST HAVE AN UNDERSTANDING OF RIGHT AND WRONG.

A child may steal and still not be defective. There is an apparent weakness in a case of this kind, but there are milder methods of correction.

Cigarette smoking is not a stamp of defectiveness. It's the result of ENVIRONMENT.

It is a mistake, in my opinion, to treat a minor offender as a defective because of some petty offense. I've robbed many a cherry orchard myself.

DON'T MAKE THE BOY BELIEVE HE IS BAD. A commission of alienists or a so called psychologist may make a mistake and mark a normal child for life.

Margery Wiped the Super Dishes.Daddy's Bedtime
Story—The Twins
Looked, but Did
Not Act, Alike.

"THERE," said daddy as he put the last words into his letter; "now I'm ready to talk to you children."

"But we don't want to talk," Jack and Evelyn answered. "It's a story we want."

"Marie and Margery were two nice little girls," daddy began. "They looked exactly alike. But when you get to know those two little girls you soon found out there was quite a difference between them."

"One summer Margery and Marie were asked to go to spend the summer in the country with friends of the family who lived on a farm."

"It was a lovely afternoon when they started. Mother kissed them goodby and was very particular to tell them they must be very good and polite and never make trouble for any one."

"When the train reached their station a big good natured boy was waiting to meet them with a pony cart."

"Jump right in," he said, "and we'll be home in jig time." Margery smiled at the boy, but Marie frowned.

"I'm hungry," Marie said. "I don't think I can wait any longer. Can't we have something to eat?"

"Margery blushed for her sister. The boy looked embarrassed. 'I'm awfully sorry,' he apologized, 'but there isn't any place around here where I could get you anything to eat.'"

"When they were driving home Marie complained about the mosquitoes."

"I don't think I'm going to like the country at all," she said.

"Why, I think it's lovely!" Margery exclaimed.

"Way off in the woods an owl hooted, and Marie screamed so loudly when she heard it that the boy had trouble to keep the horse from running away."

"When they reached the house a lovely big dog came out to meet them. Margery patted him on the head, but Marie hit him and said, 'Go way, you horrid dog!'"

"When supper was served Marie was not suited with the food, while Margery liked everything."

"The two were told to go out and sit on the porch while the dishes were being washed. Marie went out, but Margery stayed behind and helped the little bird girls, who dried the dishes for their mother. Then Marie whined because she was lonesome by herself."

"Just as they were crawling into bed the twins heard Mrs. Bird say to her husband, 'Those two little girls look exactly alike; but oh, my, I never saw such a difference in children in my life.'"

"Now, what could she have meant, I wonder? Can you guess?"

AID THE KIDNEYS.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Remedy For Hiccoughs.

To cure hiccoughs fill a glass tumbler with clear, cold water and place on a table. Then have the patient stand where he or she can look directly into the glass and fix the attention about the center of the bottom of the glass for about a minute, when the patient will find the hiccoughs have entirely disappeared. This has been known to cure the most violent cases of this uncomfortable disorder when all other remedies have failed.

Do Not Endanger Life When a New-Ark Citizen Shows You the Way to Avoid It.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a tested remedy is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in kidney trouble over 50 years. have been tested in thousands of cases.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney disease, act now. Dropsy or Bright's disease may set in and make neglect dangerous. Read this Newark testimony.

Mrs. Anson Davis, 57 N. Thirteenth St., Newark, Ohio, says: "One of the family suffered from pains in the back and kidney weakness. Doan's Kidney Pills were used, being procured from A. F. Crayton & Co.'s Drug Store, and they brought entire relief."

The "Band Boys."

The custom of open air band concerts during the summer months has become so general throughout Ohio cities as to suggest the growth of a real musical feeling among all classes of people. Our own city of Newark, we are sorry to say, is not up to the standard of other Ohio cities, though our people are not lacking in real musical culture. Many cities have made appropriations to secure the band concerts at public expense and the people are manifesting very general approval. Even in many smaller towns people are enjoying their band concerts at public expense and every where there is evidence of satisfaction—even delight.

No community can afford to deny encouragement to its musicians. It has been said that Americans take pleasures sadly. But the band concert is a democratic festival which brightens many lives. The town without a good band seems slow.

Shall the "band boys" play classical or popular music or both, will be asked and discussed. No program is complete for an outdoor recital that does not appeal to all tastes. "When That Midnight Choo-choo Leaves for Alabama," will draw more hand clapping than the overture to "Tannhauser."

The last two open air concerts given by the Newark musicians proves that they are growing in popularity. They should be made a weekly event by all means.

Who will be the first to take the matter up and bring it before the proper body, the city council, so that provisions can be made to guarantee a weekly open air concert? When it is done in so many Ohio cities, why not in Newark?

There will be a string of centennial events in the next eight years if the States admitted into the Union 100 years ago shall fall into line when the time's up: Indiana in 1916, Mississippi, 1917; Illinois, 1918; Maine, 1920; Missouri, 1921. Illinois, taking time by the forelock, is already tooting her centenary horn and making ready for a specially demonstrative memorial occasion.

Kansas may be very hot, but it is not sunstruck, we are glad to learn from Governor Hodges. It isn't hard up. It is not afraid of grasshoppers as it was in its youth. The corn crop will not be so big as it promised to be a few weeks ago, but the state is not an object of compassion. Kansas is not doing the calamity howling which was its star performance some twenty years ago.

It is certainly satisfactory that Woodrow called down the diplomacy of that other Wilson on the Mexican question.

The plan to slide Martin H. Glynn into the New York Governorship has struck a rough spot on the skids.

On Second Thought

Professor Simp says: It has been found that, on account of the corrosion which often occurs, a gold alloy makes a more satisfactory metal for coins than tin. There is a difficulty in the way of the substitution, however, as manufacturers think it would be impracticable to raise the price of a can of Boston beans from ten cents to $18.45.

It is stated that about 20,000 are bitten annually by the cobras of India. It is hard to obtain the exact estimate, however, because shortly after a native is bitten it is next to impossible to get a statement from him.

We hope that the rumored return of the bustle isn't true.

Cheer up, the worst isn't coming.

Looking backward, you'll find that a great many of the things that worried you were imaginary.

Widowers should remember that women and step children seldom get along.

Contrary to general belief, when a man becomes familiar with his stenographer it usually is for the purpose of pointing out errors in transcription and delinquencies in spelling.

In a small town when visitors call on the sick it generally is for the purpose of advising them to accept religion and join the church before it is Too Late.

What passes for modesty in a man usually is his mature judgment as to what constitutes the most effective pose.

HOGAN ATTACKS
SHORT BALLOT

Coshocton, Aug. 11. Attorney General Timothy S. Hogan again assailed the short ballot and the practice of making important state offices appointive. He said the short ballot would take away all of the power that rural constituents now have. His attack was made here in a chautauqua address.

Mr. Hogan defended the course Governor Cox is taking in the referendum frauds. He said the governor was seeking only the purity of the initiative and referendum and was in no way trying to prevent popular votes.

CITY BUILDING

FOR ZANESVILLE

Zanesville, Aug. 11. The city planning commission have received plans for a new City Hall and a market house, to occupy separate sites. The two buildings will cost $200,000, including the cost of a site.

These buildings are only part of an elaborate plan of flood rehabilitation. The plans were drawn and presented to the city gratis by Architect Alfred Granger of Philadelphia, a former resident of Zanesville.

CHINESE REBELS FAIL IN REVOLT

Outlawry May Follow Revolution, Now at an End.

AMERICANS ENDANGERED.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen Becomes Dominant Figure in Rebellion Against Yuan Shih Kai Administration—Hope For Establishment of Yuan Dynasty.

Peking, China.—With the fall of the forts at the mouth of the Yangtze river imminent, this section would be cleared of rebels, and it is thought that the Chinese rebellion would then resolve itself into provincial outlawry which could soon be terminated. Dr. Sun Yat Sen, first provincial president of the republic, has become the dominant figure in the southern revolution against the Yuan Shih Kai administration which has been in progress for several months. It was feared for a time that American citizens and American interests in the republic would be forced to call on Amos Parker Wilder, the American consul general, for protection. This, however, has not been necessary.

Reports received here from Shanghai say that Dr. Sun Yat Sen still is there, but that General Cheng Chi Men and General Huan Sing, two other leaders in the revolt, have fled.

Bunkers and members of the diplomatic corps in Peking are of the belief that President Yuan Shih Kai's most difficult task is the organization of a system of taxation throughout the republic. When the anti-Manchu revolution was put down revenues from the provinces practically ceased, and the central government since has been carried on by means of loans.

The revolutionary forces in the south are being steadily subdued by the northern troops supporting the government of President Yuan Shih Kai. The rebel leaders disappear whenever the revolutionary centers are menaced by the government troops.

The president's adherents express much elation over the successes gained by the loyal armies and advocated the introduction of a dictatorial form of government. It is said they hope for the ultimate establishment of a new Yuan dynasty, under which they would share in the spoils of office. They contend that any compromise at this time would place China in a chronic condition of revolution, which, they argue, would be most dangerous owing to the territorial aspirations of Russia and Japan.

The cities of Suchau, Chinkiang and some other districts of the province of Kiangsu have returned to the central government. The southern troops north of the Yangtze river are also reported to have resumed their allegiance to the Peking government.

Hsiung Hsiang has been confirmed by the national assembly as premier and will soon choose a new cabinet.

The Indian police of the Shanghai sent to the Chapei boundary by the municipal authorities have been driven out by the Chinese troops. The foreign consuls ordered that marines be sent into this district instead of the police. At the request of the consular corps the foreign naval officers requested the factions not to fire into or over the foreign settlements.

WESTON'S LONG WALK OVER.

Arrives at Minneapolis on Schedule After Trip of 1,500 Miles.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Edward Payson Weston completed his tramp of more than 1,500 miles from New York city here on his schedule. The aged pedestrian, by changing his plans after leaving New York, added 100 miles to his original itinerary and walked 1,546 miles.

Train Load of Babies Arrive.

Douglas, Ariz.—A special train arrived here from Nacozari, Mexico bearing scores of babies to be baptized. Because of the revolutionary troubles there has been no priest in Nacozari for several months, and the babies' parents, most of whom are wealthy, chartered the special train to take their offspring to Douglas for baptism.

Even on the sea of matrimony many are required to travel second class.

TACTICS OF THE PROSECUTION ARE CHANGED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Springfield, O., Aug. 14.—It became known today that in the second trial of Dr. Arthur B. Smith, who is charged with the murder of his first wife, Clara Smith, the prosecution will present a complete change of front. The trial opens on September 15. It is understood that the theory of an injection or administration of cyanide of potassium will be dropped and that of the use of a vegetable alkaloid poison substituted. The outcome of the trial will hinge on circumstantial and motive testimony and already great interest is aroused.

At the first trial the jury disagreed and crowds fought for admittance owing to the prominence of the parties concerned. Dr. Smith has been a prominent practicing physician while his first wife was prominent in society circles.

Already persons have made requests for places of advantage when the re-trial starts, but the plan of first come, first served, will be followed.

DROPS DEAD WHEN PET DOG GETS KILLED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Indianapolis, Aug. 14.—Mrs. Sarah Barrel, 72 years old, fell dead here last night when she saw Charles Young kill her pet poodle dog. Mrs. Barrel was standing on the sidewalk in front of her home when Young passed and the little dog ran at him barking. He struck the animal with a heavy whip he was carrying. When the dog was found to have been killed, Mrs. Barrel dropped to the ground and died before assistance could be summoned.

NOTHING DOING IN SLIT SKIRTS FOR THE GIRLS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, Aug. 14.—Several hundred young women stenographers and clerks in a large manufacturing establishment received polite notes in their pay envelopes this week, warning them against wearing the slit skirt, the hobble and X-ray skirts. They are advised to appear for work neatly attired, but in none of the above designs.

MAKE REPORT OF FIVE STRIKE BREAKERS KILLED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 14.—Police officers who returned here today from the mine strike district, reported that five strikebreakers had been killed and many members of the provincial constabulary wounded during yesterday's clash with striking miners. Other reports gave a smaller number of casualties.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, Aug. 14.—John C. Jurgens, Cleveland's boy spendthrift, who has returned here today from the state penitentiary, was refused a parole today by the board of administration.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Duluth, Aug. 14.—Protection by the Duluth police department was withdrawn from the Duluth Missabe and Northern docks today. The special police gradually will be withdrawn.

LUMBER KING DEAD.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Princeton, N. B., Aug. 14.—Alexander Gibson, New Brunswick's lumber king, died here today at the age of 94. Starting as a poor boy, Mr. Gibson rose in a dozen years to wealth and power. For forty years he cut an average of thirty million feet of lumber a year, mostly for English and European markets. He had also extensive railroad and cotton mill interests.

NEW Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Canton, O., Aug. 14.—C. E. Lundy of Bristol, Tenn. has been chosen secretary of Canton Y. M. C. A. to succeed E. E. McNelly who resigned after four years' service to enter other business.

Find Something New.

In 1644 the possibilities of the submarine were first propounded, while from the very earliest times men have conceived the idea of flying with wings like birds. There is no reason what ever to doubt the fact that Archytas of Tarentum, about 300 years before the Christian era, constructed an automaton pigeon that would fly. Turning to other latter day inventions, as they are generally regarded, it might be mentioned that switchback railways were constructed more than a hundred years ago, and looping the loop was a sensation in Paris in 1833, while roller skating, which came up as a new invention about forty years ago, was being indulged in by our forefathers as far back as 1820.

The Yolk of an Egg.

After the fast of Lent medieval custom insisted that an egg should be eaten on Easter day. According to the London Lancet, this rule was based on sound medical principles, for the only substance in the yolk is lecithin, and lecithin is a favorite drug with doctors who have patients suffering from nervous disorders. The quantity of the drug administered at a time corresponds almost exactly with the quantity found in a normal new laid egg.

NOTED CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES TODAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Binghamton, N. Y., Aug. 14.—General Edward Jones, former lieutenant governor of New York and a noted civil war veteran, died at his home here today. He was stricken with apoplexy last Saturday afternoon.

General Jones was born in Utica, June 3, 1828. At the age of 16 he became a drygoods clerk in Boston. There he enlisted in the Prescott guards and later became major of the Sixth Massachusetts regiment which under his command was the first to respond to Lincoln's call for 75,000 volunteers. When his command reached Washington after being attacked in the streets of Baltimore, President Lincoln declared: "If you had not arrived tonight we should have been in the hands of the rebels before morning."

He was a member of the house of representatives in Massachusetts in 1865. For over forty years he operated the Jones scale works in this city and his trade phrase "Jones pays the freight" was known throughout the United States. In 1885 he was elected lieutenant governor of the state of New York.

NEW GRAVE FIRST TIME IN 32 YEARS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Philadelphia, Aug. 14.—For the first time in thirty-two years a new grave was made yesterday in the old Hebrew cemetery, Mktive Israel, in this city, when the remains of Miss Josephine E. Eiting, of Baltimore, great grandniece of Rachael Graetz, heroine of Sir Walter Scott's "Ivanhoe," was buried beside the grave of her famous relative. The old burial spot which was established in 1740, contains graves of many of the congregation who lived during the era of the revolutionary war. It is now in the care of the Hebrew Historical Society.

NO BLOCKS SET AGAINST CARR; WANTS RELEASE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 13.—Pullman Palace Car, a sailor on the battleship Arkansas, who desires the main track of civil life through the means of an honorable discharge has appealed to Senator Bradley, who advised him to press his case with the secretary of war.

Carr, who applied for his discharge several months ago, evidently thinks that he has been stuck.

The navy department advised the Jack tar with the striking phrase, that his application would be railroaded through as quick as possible. He was assured that no block system was in operation against him. Carr is a native of Kentucky.

Readers' Viewpoint

There has been a great deal of complaint made by the people in general who travel North Williams street and Church street over the actions of the boys and young men who have been bathing in the creek at the Church street bridge. The writer of this article has seen the young men and boys stand on the abutments in plain view of everyone using these streets and underpass, after which they would climb on the bridge rail and dive into the creek. Some of them would be attired in trunks, others with no more clothes on than they had the day they were born. It seems as if the boys made a practice of climbing on this bridge every time a woman passed, and the more that passed the bolder they would get, some of them would even stand on the bridge until after the women had gone by. As this bridge is used by many automobilists and the public in general, especially in the evening, the most of whom are women and young girls, the proper authorities should take immediate action and stop this degrading habit.

Summerland Beach, Aug. 14.—Despite the fact that the Chautauqua here is drawing to the close of the last week of the season, the large attendance which it has enjoyed throughout the earlier part of the week is still keeping up. It was estimated that the crowds on the grounds today numbered nearly four thousand and the attendance at the lecture yesterday was over two thousand.

Some of the best numbers on the program have been reserved to the last few days of the season. Saturday is "Recognition Day" and the recognition service will be conducted in the auditorium at 10:30 by Rev. P. E. Brinninstool, who will deliver an address at that hour. In the afternoon of Saturday, General D. K. Watson of Columbus will deliver his famous lecture on "Lincoln as a Lawyer." Gen. Watson was attorney general of the state for two terms and is an eminent lawyer, a good speaker and as a great attorney his address on Lincoln is not only authority on the subject but exceedingly interesting. In the evening, Dr. Geo. F. Colby, who is a fluent speaker and a noted artist, will give an entertainment with cartooning and humorous comment. Mr. Colby has had many years of training, is possessed of remarkable talent as a cartoonist and has a great store of fun for his audience.

The Life Lectures on Wednesday evening by Mr. Montville Flowers took the form of a reading and interpretation of "The Christmas Carol" by Dickens. This is undoubtedly the greatest Christmas story ever written and as portrayed by Mr. Flowers the characters seemed to have a real existence.

REV. A. M. DIXON, Who is conducting the Young People's Conference at the Assembly this week.

The Chicago Male Quartette which was to have appeared Thursday afternoon and evening has found it impossible to make arrangements to be at the Chautauqua and the date has been cancelled. In their place the Orphean Musical club will give concerts in the afternoon and evening. This club comprises one of the finest male quartettes in the country. They have been coached by Elias Day, the great comedian, and their selections are mostly popular song hits.

Rev. A. M. Dixon, who has charge of the Young People's Conference at 8:30 each morning is giving a series of lectures in practical B. Y. P. U. work, outlining methods for making the greatest success out of the meetings from a social as well as a religious standpoint. Mr. Dixon has been for the past year state secretary of the Ohio Baptist Convention. He has just returned from Phillip, West Virginia, where he gave a series of lectures before the West Virginia Baptist Convention and Chautauqua Assembly. "The Wheel That Goes Round," is the subject of a popular lecture which he has delivered many times, he having been connected at one time with a lyceum bureau. Mr. Dixon has a winning personality and is an interesting speaker. All his lectures have been well attended.

In the baseball game Wednesday afternoon Millersport won by the score of 9 to 2. Silbaugh who twirled for the visitors had too much smoke for the locals and the hits of his delivery were well scattered. Williams, who pitched for the Beach team had poor support and the majority of the rallies were due to errors in the field.

The Chautauqua management this year has done better than usual in meeting expenses and another year at Summerland is practically assured. It should be understood that this Assembly is not operated for private gain. The men who have charge of the work, give their time and energy without any compensation except the satisfaction of knowing that they are in a good work and doing much to educate and give their patrons higher ideals and nobler religious principles.

The Chautauqua began with a debt on its hands, for though Mr. Haskins, who had managed the Summerland Chautauqua and built the auditorium, had practically paid for the buildings at the time of the consolidation of the two Assemblies, there was still a debt to be paid. This has been reduced to almost nothing. Summerland Beach Assembly is enabled to give much better programs than other Chautauquas, because there is a revenue coming from other sources than the admission fees. The sum paid by the patrons in admissions would fall far short of meeting the expense of the talent which is secured each year. Beside this, the rental of the tents, and furnishings and income from a number of other fees are used toward building up the program each year.

Operating upon this basis, it can be readily seen that the entertainments on offer at a remarkably low figure and great entertainers and lecturers can be heard cheaper here than at many of the larger Chautauquas.

courts review the constitutionality of the impeachment proceedings prior to September 18.

This review they assert, probably will be started by mandamus proceedings to compel obedience to his instructions by the first department head who refuses to recognize the claim that he is not still governor. There will be no undignified fight for the governorship according to claims, setting forth the intention of both claimants for the office. Mr. Glynn has announced that there will not be any circus or military maneuvers about occupying the executive chamber.

D. Cady Herrick, chief of the large staff of Mr. Sulzer's counsel declared last night that there would be no "physical scramble" on his client's part.

Governor Sulzer came to the capitol shortly before 11 o'clock this morning and went directly to his private office off the executive chamber through a side door.

"Everybody in the state of New York ought to be with me in this fight," he said.

Mr. Sulzer seemed refreshed by his night's rest and was in excellent spirits.

"You know we had a conference last night, my lawyers and I," the governor said to the reporters. "They made me promise not to talk. There is not a word that I can tell you."

He had hardly reached his office before Patrick E. McCabe, clerk of the Senate arrived.

The articles of impeachment and the summons were served by Mr. McCabe on the governor at 11:06 o'clock.

"All right," said Mr. Sulzer in accepting service.

Lieutenant Governor Glynn came to the capitol and went to his office on the third floor.

"I shall exercise whatever functions of government may come before me," he said. "However, I shall use my own staff and not enlist the aid of the militia."

Governor Sulzer's private secretary stood beside him this morning and made the following announcement: "The governor has been enjoined by his counsel from making any statement. I will say, however, on his behalf that illness of Mrs. Sulzer is giving the governor considerable concern. Her condition last night was very serious. The specialist summoned from New York last night is here, and the governor to-day summoned two other doctors from New York to attend her."

Governor Sulzer retired to his private office at 11 o'clock for a series of conferences. Mrs. Sulzer's temperature was 102, and her condition serious and she can see no one, according to a bulletin issued today.

GOVERNOR'S WIFE SERIOUSLY ILL

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Aug. 14.—Mrs. William Sulzer who has injected herself into the case of impeachment of Governor Sulzer, by "confessing" that she carried on speculation herself, was the figure in the situation today, through the report of her nervous breakdown.

Dr. Abrams, a nerve specialist, who has treated Mrs. Sulzer before, left New York at midnight for Albany to respond to a summons, with the understanding that Mrs. Sulzer was in a very serious condition of prostration.

Mrs. Sulzer is known among her friends as a model homemaker, and state statements attributed to her regarding her speculation with campaign funds to help meet household expenses, has been a great surprise to those who know her.

Before her marriage she was Miss Clara Rodellheim of Philadelphia. After a high school education there, she became a trained nurse in the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago, and afterwards served at institutions in this city.

While Governor Sulzer was a member of congress the couple lived in an unpretentious apartment in East Capitol street in Washington, where Mrs. Sulzer delighted in playing the role of both cook and hostess when friends were being entertained.

ABSENT SON IS BACK HOME WITH PARENTS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Glasgow, Ky. Aug. 11.—He had been away for twenty years, seeking his fortune in Alaska, and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Huffman, were sitting in a room of their home near here last night, discussing him, and wondering if he would ever come back. Then there was a knock at the door, and Mrs. Huffman opened it to see a dusky traveler who said he was tired and was seeking lodging for the night.

Mr. Huffman thought he could do nothing for him, as there were visitors in the home, and the traveler turned to go. But Mrs. Huffman could not see the man turned out into the night, so she called him and "reckoned" they could manage somehow.

He then led him into the hall and under the swinging lamp, and as the light fell on his face, the aged couple recognized him, and there was a glad reunion.

Virgil Huffman had been prospecting in Alaska for a score of years and he had not prospered. Now he will make his home with his parents who "reckoned" they can manage somehow to make room for him.

FINDS SKELETON OF GIANT FOSSIL

(Associated Press Telegram)
Durango, Colo., Aug. 11.—The discovery of the most ancient skeleton of a giant fossil mammal ever found on this continent was announced by Prof. Henry Fairfield Osborn, president of the National Museum of Natural History.

The skeleton was found in the Kimballton draw in front of Pueblo, Colo., by the museum party led by Walter Granger and according to Prof. Osborn represents the beginning of mammalian life on this continent. The specimen is about the size of a wolf and evidently an herbivorous animal.

In the same draw three complete skulls were found, one of a large carnivorous type.

TURNED AUTO LIGHTS ON ALL THE ENTRANCES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Indianapolis, Aug. 14.—After they had completed their organization early today, representatives of the Interurban trainmen escaped from the hall by means of an improvised rope ladder and through a hotel, while fifty interurban and city street car company officials had the lights of their automobiles shining on the entrance to the hall in an effort to identify the men as they came out.

The trainmen made the trip out at a time and their escape from the hall was not discovered by the officials until long after the last one had disappeared. Carl S. Black, who is organizing the union said today that two-thirds of the interurban men in Indiana either had or were willing to join the union.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 14.—A humorous situation developed here today when officials of traction companies entering Indianapolis were sleeping awaiting for trainmen employed by the various lines to emerge from a building where they last night completed the formation of a union. The conductors and motormen began their session early last evening and shortly afterward officials of the various interurban lines drove to the halls in automobiles and trained the headlights of their machines on every exit. The men in the hall called the police, saying the officials were interfering with their meeting, but a squad of men sent to the scene found nothing to do but keep the crowd moving. Far into the night the officials remained at their post, declaring they would not leave until the employees came from the building. The trainmen, who secretly formed their union, appeared to be satisfied with conditions and chose to remain in the hall rather than to leave.

At daybreak the situation was unchanged.

BODY

her waist when the body was taken from the water.

There was a slight abrasion of the skin apparent above the left eye, but it evidently was not sufficient to have caused unconsciousness and may have been caused by a fall. No other marks were found on the body when it was prepared for burial.

The theory of suicide has also been advanced, it being hinted that the woman took her own life while brooding over a love affair. The family refuse to accept this explanation, declaring that the young woman's life was a happy one and that she had no reason for being melancholy.

In a statement to the press early Thursday morning, Coroner Wytarch intimated that he had information which would warrant him in making a more extended investigation than a perfunctory inquiry usual in such deaths. He stated that he was not in a position to divulge the nature of the information at present.

Upon the result of Coroner Wytarch's investigation of a story told to him at the lake Wednesday night will depend largely his verdict in the case. If he finds any information sustaining the story already related he will order an autopsy. If the story is found to be untrue, he will deliver a finding that the girl died from a sudden attack of heart trouble or similar disorder and end the investigation.

It is rumored that a man named Lyttick, employed at a gas reducing station near the lake, had talked of the case to a boy whose name was not given. It is said that this boy claimed to have seen a man throw the woman's body into the lake.

Little credence is placed in the story but the coroner deemed it advisable to run it down if possible before ordering the woman's body turned over to the relatives for burial.

The sensational story which gained circulation over the state that the woman had been murdered and robbed was proved false by the announcement of Mrs. Green, her sister, that the diamond rings said to have been stolen, were found at the home in Columbus. Every article of jewelry the girl wore was turned over to relatives by the coroner, proving the robbery story a myth.

Mr. and Mrs. Green were in Newark Thursday afternoon, coming here to attend the inquest which they understood would be held this afternoon. Upon being advised that the inquest would not take place to-day and that they need not remain, they decided to return to Newark.

To advocate reporter Mrs. Green stated that her sister was a stenographer employed in Columbus. She was born in Dayton, Ky. The funeral arrangements will be delayed until Miss Gillard's fiancé, Robert Leman, can reach Columbus. He is located in British Columbia, where he has a contract for the Canadian Pacific. He is a construction engineer.

He has been notified of Miss Gillard's death and started immediately for Columbus.

Mr. Franklin was watching the boys at play in the water when he heard a cry for help. He went to their assistance and managed to keep them afloat until the manager of the theatre could aid him. Mr. Franklin is a good swimmer and dived after the boys without even removing his hat.

PORTER CHARLTON TAKEN BACK ON ITALIAN BOAT

Jersey City, Aug. 11.—Porter Charlton, confessed wife murderer, left home shores behind him today to be tried in Italy for killing Mary Scott Castle Charlton and throwing her body in Lake Como. The steamship Italia on which the prisoner travels (third class, in charge of Italian officers) left her pier about 1 o'clock.

Italy has no death penalty but Charlton faces the possibility of solitary confinement for life. His father, Judge Paul Charlton, a Yale classmate of Ex-President Taft will attend the trial.

FATHER WILL ATTEND TRIAL

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 14.—The case of Porter Charlton, self-confessed slayer of his wife, was removed today from the jurisdiction of the United States when he was given over by the warden of the jail at Jersey City to two Italian policemen, in accordance with extradition papers. He was reported to be in high spirits in prospects of a sea voyage after nearly three years' confinement, and confident that at the hands of the Italian authorities he would receive an acquittal.

After being removed to the steamship Italia, which sails today, he shook hands with all the jail officials and his fellow prisoners and he was

THE EXAMINERS CLOSE STATE BANK; TREASURER GONE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Newark, N. J., Aug. 13.—Bank examiners today closed the Roseville Trust company, a state institution in Newark's suburbs, and in so doing confirmed a report that Raymond B. Smith, secretary-treasurer of the institution, is missing. He left behind him a shortage estimated at $200,000.

Smith received the examiners cordially when they came yesterday, and assisted them for a time in their work. Then he excused himself, saying he would return shortly. He has not been seen since, although it was said today that he was in communication with some of the bank's officers through a third party.

RIFLEMEN ARE ON HAND READY FOR BIG TOURNAMENT

Camp Perry, O., Aug. 14.—The largest number of riflemen that ever participated in the matches of the National Rifle Association are on hand here today, ready for the opening of the annual tournament tomorrow.

The program will begin at 7 a. m. instead of 8 o'clock as first announced. Three big events, the Wimbledon, Castrow and Hale cup matches, will be started at once.

In 1911, which was the banner year for the Wimbledon cup match, there were 246 entries. This year, 515 crack marksmen are entered for the event.

The Castrow cup match has 385 entries and the Hale cup match 401 entries. In all 28 rifle teams are now on hand ready for action on the firing lines. These include the Peruvian team, captained by Ernesto Flores, and the team representing the Argentine Republic, led by Juan C. Gallardo. The latter team finished second in the Pan-American matches at Buenos Ayres in 1912, when the United States team captured first place.

A number of other teams arrived today for competition in later matches. Many teams and individuals spent the final day before the matches going over the course in their final tryout. Scores today and in the previous practice stunts indicate some record breaking marksmanship when the big matches get under way.
